

Kimberley D. Harris

Executive Vice President, General Counsel, NBCUniversal

Kimberley D. Harris was named Executive Vice President, General Counsel, NBCUniversal in 2013. Ms. Harris is based in New York.

Ms. Harris provides legal advice to the NBCUniversal senior management team and supervises the Law Department, which handles legal matters for all of NBCUniversal's business units, including the company's film studio, two broadcast networks, 18 cable channels, 50-plus digital sites, and theme park operations. She also coordinates NBCUniversal's global regulatory and legislative agenda.

Ms. Harris joined NBCUniversal from Davis Polk & Wardwell, where she served most recently as a partner in the litigation department. During her tenure she handled a variety of matters on behalf of the firm's clients, including investigations by the Department of Justice, the Securities and Exchange Commission, and the U.S. Congress.

From 2010 to 2012 Ms. Harris served in the White House Counsel's Office, most recently as Deputy Counsel and Deputy Assistant to the President. During her tenure at the White House, Ms. Harris advised senior Executive Branch officials on congressional investigations and executive privilege issues, and senior White House officials on a wide range of compliance and risk management issues, as well as other legal matters. In addition, she developed and implemented the White House response to congressional investigations, and managed litigation matters relating to the President.

From 2009 to 2010 she was Senior Counsel to the Assistant Attorney General, U.S. Department of Justice, Criminal Division, where she worked on fraud-related issues, and participated in inter-agency task forces on behalf of the Criminal Division, including the Financial Fraud Enforcement Task Force, the National Procurement Fraud Task Force, and the Health Care Fraud Prevention and Enforcement Action Team.

She first joined Davis Polk & Wardwell as an associate in 1997 and was named a litigation partner in 2007. As a litigation partner at Davis Polk from 2007 to 2009, Ms. Harris's practice focused on advising institutions and individuals on government investigations and complex civil litigation in state and federal courts. From 1996 to 1997 she served as a law clerk to the Honorable Charles S. Haight, Jr., U.S. District Court, S.D. New York.

The New York City chapter of the National Organization for Women (NOW) recently honored Ms. Harris for her outstanding record of achievement in government and law, and her commitment to the advancement of women, during their 2013 Women of Power & Influence Awards.

Ms. Harris graduated magna cum laude from Harvard University, and holds a law degree from Yale Law School.
