Mr. Ross Leckow

Deputy General Counsel

Legal Department

Ross Leckow is Deputy General Counsel in the Legal Department of the International Monetary Fund. Originally from Canada, Mr. Leckow has been a member of the IMF's Legal Department for the past 26 years. As an IMF lawyer, he has advised on all aspects of the IMF's operations, including the governance of the IMF, its surveillance over member countries' economies, and its financial and technical assistance to IMF members. Mr. Leckow currently leads the Legal Department's efforts to help member countries strengthen their legal frameworks for the regulation of the financial sector, and to contribute to the development of international standards for financial regulation. He is a co-author of the IMF's paper on Virtual Currencies and Beyond: Initial Considerations (2016). He is also the author of "Virtual Currencies – the Regulatory Challenges" to be published by the European Central Bank in ESCB Legal Conference 2016. Before joining the Fund, Mr. Leckow practiced law in the private and public sectors in Canada. He lectures frequently in the United States and abroad on the law of the IMF and other issues of international financial law.
