

Robert G. Rowe, III

*Vice President and Associate Chief Counsel, Regulatory Compliance, American Bankers Association
Washington, D.C.*

Rob re-joined the American Bankers Association's ("ABA") Center for Regulatory Compliance in October 2008 where he represents ABA members on compliance issues involving the Bank Secrecy Act and Anti-Money Laundering, fair lending, and privacy. Rob currently serves as ABA's representative to the Treasury Department's Bank Secrecy Act Advisory Group, where he has been a representative for more than 20 years. For nearly five years, Rob chaired the International Banking Federation's Financial Crimes Working Group where he continues as an active member. Rob also serves as ABA's liaison on military issues.

Before returning to ABA in 2008, Rob was with another trade association where he represented community banks on a variety of compliance issues. In the early 1990s, he spent nearly four years with ABA designing products, seminars and services to help banks meet their regulatory compliance needs. He also has over ten years of experience as a bank compliance officer, covering issues from personal trust to commercial lending.

Rob has an A.B., summa cum laude, Phi Beta Kappa, from Bowdoin College in Brunswick, Maine. He holds a Juris Doctor, cum laude, from Boston University and a master of laws from Georgetown University. Rob is a member in good standing of the bars of Pennsylvania, Massachusetts, and the District of Columbia.
