

David Richter '92

Vice President, Business and Corporate Development, DoorDash

David Richter '92 is Vice President, Business and Corporate Development at DoorDash, which he joined in July 2021. Earlier, he held a wide variety of roles at start-ups, including leading business and corporate development, legal, finance and product teams. In particular, David was a member of Uber during its high-growth years from 2014-2018, ultimately leading Business and Corporate Development as well as Experiential Marketing and joining the Executive Leadership Team. David also helped lead two other companies from start-up to IPO. David holds a J.D. from Yale Law School and B.A. in Government from Cornell University.