

Peter Ezersky formed Stony Hill Capital in 2018 to continue investing in real estate and private equity opportunities. He spent three years at Rhône Group LLC where he started Rhône's real estate investment activities. He spent the prior 15 years at Quadrangle Group LLC, a private equity firm that he co-founded. Prior to joining Quadrangle, Mr. Ezersky ran the Worldwide Media and Communications group at Lazard Frères & Co., which he joined after starting his investment banking career at First Boston. Mr. Ezersky currently serves on the Boards of Directors of Grubb Properties and Natural Foodworks Group. He also serves on the Board of Venture for America, (www.ventureforamerica.org), a non-profit program that places promising young people in start-up businesses in emerging cities throughout the United States and served for 20 years (15 as Chairman) on the Board of Common Ground Community (www.commonground.org), New York City's largest developer, owner and operator of supportive housing for formerly homeless people. Mr. Ezersky received a B.A., summa cum laude, in political science from Amherst College, where he was a member of Phi Beta Kappa, and a J.D. from the Yale Law School, where he was an editor of the Yale Law Journal. Following law school, he was a Law Clerk for Judge Ralph K. Winter, Jr. of the United States Court of Appeals for the Second Judicial Circuit. Mr. Ezersky resides in New York City with his wife and two children.
