

Peter Ezersky joined Rhône Group LLC in January 2015 as a Managing Director. He spent the prior 15 years at Quadrangle Group LLC, a private equity firm that he co-founded. Prior to joining Quadrangle, Mr. Ezersky ran the Worldwide Media and Communications group at Lazard Frères & Co., which he joined after starting his investment banking career at First Boston. Mr. Ezersky currently serves on the Boards of Directors of Cinemark and Dice Holdings. He also serves on the Board of Venture for America, (www.ventureforamerica.org), a non-profit program that places promising young people in start-up businesses in emerging cities throughout the United States and has served for 20 years (15 as Chairman) on the Board of Common Ground Community (www.commonground.org), New York City's largest developer, owner and operator of supportive housing for formerly homeless people. Mr. Ezersky received a B.A., summa cum laude, in political science from Amherst College, where he was a member of Phi Beta Kappa, and a J.D. from the Yale Law School, where he was an editor of the Yale Law Journal. Following law school, he was a Law Clerk for Judge Ralph K. Winter, Jr. of the United States Court of Appeals for the Second Judicial Circuit. Mr. Ezersky is an American citizen and resides in New York City with his wife and two children.